

Every computer comes with the tool Cisco AnyConnect, in which you should be able to use the VPN. You should connect to any VPN except the Externals VPN's.

For office, you should be able to connect to your site's WiFi (Bosch WiFi Full Access). For WFH, every computer comes with the tool Cisco AnyConnect, in which you should be able to use the VPN. You should connect to any VPN except the Externals VPN's.

Every employee already has access to HR Global. In there you can access all things related to you payroll, vacations, travels, etc.

New associates get access to the tool for onboarding in which you will be introduced to your team and your courses online.

You should contact your team leader for questions about what tools you should be using for your workspace. Meanwhile, you can access "My CI Links" and access to Add/Remove Software.

You can access to the Bosch Learning Space for any doubts regarding tools and processes.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

You can ask your HR Partner about any doubt inquiring regarding loans, mortgage, etc.

You can ask your HR Partner about any doubt regarding on site rules and access.

Every Bosch Employee has access to the IT Workplace Toolkit in which you can find any useful information regarding your personal information.

You can always access Bosch Home Page from your preferred browser and access all of the important information.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

You can always ask your HR Partner questions regarding benefits of working at Bosch.

Reception handles the registering of fingerprints for access. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

Bosch offers food discounts around the office. You can always ask HR depending on the location.

You can access the PRIME tool in your desktop or searching in the taskbar, where it will take you to the webpage.

Every Bosch Employee has access to the IT Workplace Toolkit in which you can find any useful information regarding your personal information.

You'll need to contact your HR Partner questions regarding plant snacks and which days they're available

You can access the office layout and map on the eRoom bookings.

You get assigned a Bosch Buddy as soon as you join by your manager. If there's any doubt, you can always contact him or HR.

The phone number for HRS is (8004000247)

You can access the office layout and map on the eRoom bookings.

If there's any doubt regarding HR navigating tools, you can always contact your HR Partner for help.

If there's any doubt regarding HR navigating tools, you can always contact your HR Partner for help.

You can ask your manager or HR Partner any doubt regarding filling PRIME or other tracking tool.

After 6 days from your first day, you will get access to your Outlook and Teams account. If issues persist, contact HR Services.

You can always ask your manager for access and tools regarding your workspace.

You can always ask your manager for access and tools regarding your workspace.

You can access your payroll info through the Launch Portal in Bosch Home Page.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

You can call HR Services regarding any doubts about payroll, mortgage, etc. (8004000247)

You have 1 hour of lunch each day, you can administrate your time and choose your most convenient time.

Reception handles the tag requests, you can request one trough email or in person.

Right now in office there aren't any available. You can always ask your manager for additional equipment that might be needed for your workspace.

You can access the Launch Portal and review your travel expense or corporate Organization Chart can be found on the org manager.

HR is in charge on giving onboarding gifts. You will be contacted to pick up your welcoming gift in the upcoming weeks of your introduction.

You can access "My CI Links" from your desktop and review which tickets are needed for your work.

CI support is located in 4th floor next to HR. You can always contact CI Support for any technical issue you might be experience.

As part of the new joiners onboarding, associates should be taking an introduction into site rules, safety, emergency, etc.

As part of the new joiners onboarding, you can access the next link regarding working areas/departments

Organization Chart can be found on the org manager.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

As part of site rules, you can choose your workspace on site. There are certain restrictions regarding HR or CI Area, but you can choose your desk to work.

Reception handles the registering of fingerprints. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

You can access the office layout and map on the eRoom bookings.

Every employee already has access to HR Global. In there you can access all things related to you payroll, vacations, travels, etc.

You can ask your manager about any additional equipment you might need. Additionally, if working within the lab you can ask the lab manager for any equipment.

Reception handles the registering of fingerprints for access. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

Every employee already has access to Launch Portal. In there you can access all things related to you payroll, vacations, travels, etc.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

Every employee already has access to Launch Portal. In there you can access all things related to you payroll, vacations, travels, etc.

You can access the office layout and map on the eRoom bookings.

You'll get access to the onboarding tool app for your courses and introduction to Bosch. In there, you can keep progress about your courses and onboarding requirements.

The phone number for HRS is (8004000247)

You can access the office layout and map on the eRoom bookings.

You can access "My CI Links" from your desktop and review which tickets are needed for your work.

You can access "My CI Links" from your desktop and look for the ticket "CoRASon for Internals" and submit the request for access.

Your office has a direction assistant which will provide you of the needed materials for your workspace. If any doubt persists you can always ask your manager for equipment.

You can always access Bosch Home Page from your preferred browser and accessthe Learning Portal.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

Reception handles the registering of fingerprints for access. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

Reception handles the registering of vehicle tags and bycycle parking. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

Reception handles the request for a locker. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour for submitting a request.

Organization Chart can be found on the org manager.

You should be assigned a BSH account and equipment when your manager deems it necessary for your work. (Only BSH Employees)

Right now in office there aren't any available. You can always ask your manager for additional equipment that might be needed for your workspace.

Your office has a direction assistant which will provide you of the needed materials for your workspace. If any doubt persists you can always ask your manager for equipment.

Your HR Partner should be assigned on the first day of onboarding associates. If you do not get the information, you can go to HR space on 4th floor and ask.

You can always ask your manager for additional equipment that might be needed for your workspace.

You can always ask your manager for additional equipment that might be needed for your workspace.

Reception handles the registering of vehicle tags and parking. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour for receiving your tag.

Yes you can, there's a network for Bosch employees. Be mindful of the websites you access on site.

As part of site rules, you can choose your workspace on site. There are certain restrictions regarding HR or CI Area, but you can choose your desk to work.

Organization Chart can be found on the org manager.

You can schedule a GDP with your manager and review your work and responsibilities.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquiries about vacations.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquiries about vacations.

You can access the office layout and map on the eRoom bookings.

You can access "My CI Links" from your desktop and review which tickets are needed for your work.

You can call whoever you need for your work on the Teams app. Additionally you can also use Skype, but soon it will be removed from the workspace.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquiries about vacations and review about your floating hours.

You can always call HR Services or CI support for any problem or inconvenience on your workspace.

Yes you can with some restrictions. 1st floor and 9th floor are off limits to Bosch employees, as well to certain areas like HR and HRS.

Reception handles the registering of fingerprints for access. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

Your laptop has a serial number which is used for tracking employee

Reception handles the registering and assignment of lockers. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

Reception handles the registering of vehicle tags and bicycle parking. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

Reception handles the registering of vehicle tags and parking. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

You should contact your team leader for questions about what tools and access you should be using for your workspace.

You should contact your team leader for questions about what tools and access you should be using for your workspace. Additionally, you can request access to Bosch labs and spaces on reception. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

You can access your payroll info through the Launch Portal in Bosch Home Page.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

As part of site rules, you can choose your workspace on site. There are certain restrictions regarding HR or CI Area, but you can choose your desk to work.

1st floor and 9th floor are off limits to Bosch employees, as well to certain spaces like HR and HRS on 4th and 7th floor.

If you run into a problem which restricts or inconvenience your work, you can always raise a ticket to CI. Additionally if you believe you have a security issue, you can always ask your local CI department for help.

Reception handles the registering and assignment of lockers. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

As part of the new joiners onboarding, associates should be taking an introduction into site rules, safety, emergency, etc. Additionally, you can ask your HR Partner regarding issues about relationships, dress code, etc.

You can access the acronym webpage on your preferred browser.

Your HR Partner should be assigned on the first day of onboarding associates. If you do not get the information, you can go to HR space on 4th floor and ask.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

New associates get access to the tool for onboarding in which you will be introduced to your team and your courses online.

As part of site rules, you can choose your workspace on site. There are certain restrictions regarding HR or CI Area, but you can choose your desk to work.

Handle Bosch equipment with care and responsibly.

Reception handles the registering and assignment of parking spaces and vehicle tags. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour.

New associates get access to the tool for onboarding in which you will be introduced to your team and your courses online.

You can access "My CI Links" from your desktop and review which tickets are needed for your work.

You can access to the Auto Service Portal for inquires about vacations.

You can call HR through your cellphone. You will be requested to mention your Bosch UPN to confirm your identity.

Reception handles the request for a locker. You can always send an email and schedule a convenient hour for submitting a request.

HR is in charge on giving onboarding gifts. You will be contacted to pick up your welcoming gift in the upcoming weeks of your introduction.

You can always ask your manager for access and tools regarding your workspace.

You can access the acronym webpage on your preferred browser.

As part of the new joiners onboarding, associates should be taking an introduction into site rules, safety, emergency, etc.